

Lupin Gardens, Winchester, Hampshire, SO22 5AF

ACCOMMODATION

This very well planned double fronted three-bedroom house is in a quiet location off one of Winchester's most popular roads and is within walking distance to the local shop and GP surgery, with countryside walks just around the corner. Inside, the internal walls have all been repainted within the past 18 months. The property provides a formal sitting room to the right with a French door out to the private rear garden. Located on the left of the property is the kitchen/breakfast room with a nice little seating area ideal for reading or morning coffee. There is also a ground-floor cloakroom and welcoming entrance hall with hard-wearing wooden flooring.

The first floor provides three comfortable bedrooms which are serviced by the family 'Jack and Jill' bathroom accessed from the landing and principal bedroom. All three bedrooms benefit from built-in storage. Externally, two allocated parking spaces can be found at the front. To the rear, the garden has a large entertaining terrace, perfect for al fresco socialising. Steps lead up to a lawned area with a handy garden shed.
