

Hadrian Way, Chilworth, Southampton, Hampshire, SO16 7HX

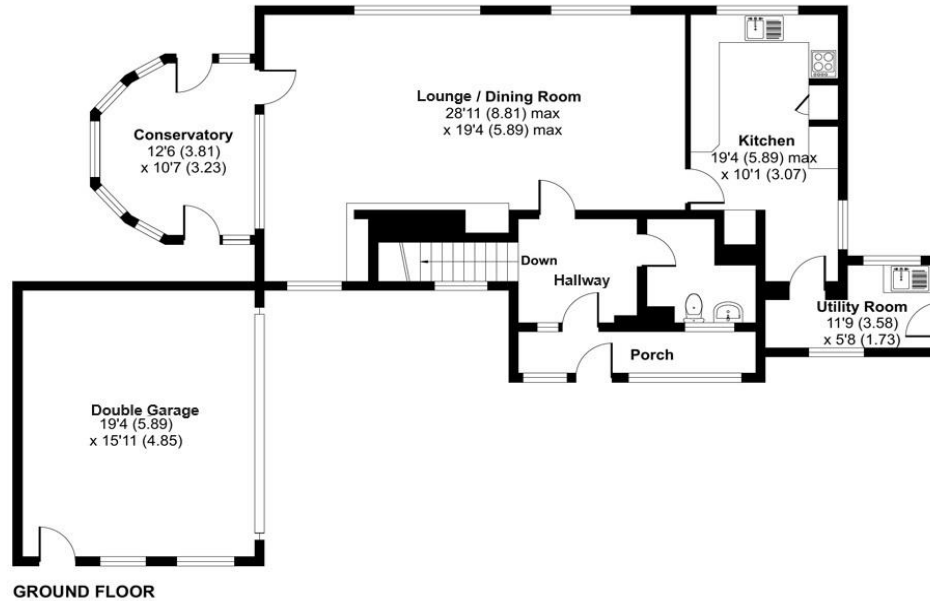

ACCOMMODATION

A unique split level detached property on a mature plot approaching half an acre in size that backs onto woodland with an enchanting and delightful leafy outlook that offers an attractive vista. The exciting opportunity to create an enlarged or individual new home of enviable proportions will appeal to purchasers seeking such a project that is rarely available. The existing layout comprises an entrance hall with a cloakroom found on the right. The open plan lounge has a delightful view with a conservatory to the left while the dining area enjoys a similar aspect. A door opens to the kitchen that requires updating and there is also a utility area room with a side stable door. The lower ground floor has a corridor with an airing cupboard and a walk-in boiler room. There are four well-proportioned bedrooms served by a dated bathroom and an en-suite shower. Outside there is a driveway leading to the double garage and carport. The rear garden is an outstanding feature and is predominantly laid to lawn with mature shrubs and trees that provide natural privacy.
