THE OLD MANSION COLLECTIVE

AN AWARD-WINNING NEW DEVELOPMENT OF BEAUTIFUL CHARACTER HOMES IN AN EXQUISITE SETTING...

The Old Mansion Collective is a prestigious development of new character homes set within the Parish of Chilworth in Southampton in the idyllic grounds of a former 16th century mansion and its deer park.

From the elegant, sweeping tree-lined approach, past ancient fishing ponds and through its historic landscape, you'll discover a special place that you'll want to call home. Already a multi-award-winning development, Highwood has breathed fresh life into an exquisite setting and created an imposing new community of homes that will appeal to everyone.

The Old Mansion Collective comprises just 15, three, four and five-bedroom executive homes set on a quiet, 26-acre landscape near North Stoneham Park, close to superb local amenities, outstanding sporting facilities and great transport links.

These beautiful new homes have been designed as an homage to the 20th century British architect, Herbert Collins, whose Collins homes are so well known in the local area. Arranged around a village green with a pond and spectacular trees dating back to the Domesday Book, every home in The Courtyard is a delight, each offering the distinctive character, generous room sizes and luxurious specifications Highwood is so renowned for.

A RICH HISTORY

REVIVING A REMARKABLE LANDSCAPE FOR NEW GENERATIONS TO ENJOY...

The Old Mansion Collective is steeped in a rich history that dates back to the Saxon era as a vast estate with common pastures where, by the time of Domesday, settlements had grown. Later, the stunning medieval landscape and its deer park – the future setting for North Stoneham Park – became a grand, aristocratic hunting ground.

Today, Highwood is reviving this remarkable landscape once more. We’re preserving the site’s superb ecology and staying true to its incredible heritage so new generations can enjoy life in one of the most exquisite residential settings on the south coast.

In 1545, the manor passed to the Willis Fleming family who dramatically rebuilt it as a magnificent mansion with 29 rooms, at least 10 outbuildings and gardens with ponds and spectacular parkland. 200 years later, the grounds would be redesigned by the renowned English landscape architect, Lancelot ‘Capability’ Brown. The Willis Fleming family left their mansion before the end of the 19th century, leaving the lush parkland for grazing cattle, equestrians and golfers to enjoy.

THE LOCATION

EVERYTHING YOU NEED IS CLOSE TO HOME

The Old Mansion Collective is close to everything you need and everywhere you want to go. Close to home, footpaths will take you to Eastleigh town centre and you'll find bus services for travel to Eastleigh and Southampton City.

Going further afield is just as easy. You're just a short distance from Junction 5 of the M27 motorway that connects the southeast and southwest and London and the north via the M3. Southampton Parkway train station is within easy walking distance for travel to all major commuter destinations; London Waterloo is just over an hour away. Winchester is within easy driving distance and, with its dazzling array of history, shopping, culture, cafes, bars and restaurants, this historic city rewards repeat visits. The New Forest National Park is just a little further to the west with its 220 square miles of breathtaking countryside.

The Old Mansion Collective is also a short drive from the coast and The Solent, one of the world's foremost yachting and watersports destinations. The region's proud maritime heritage continues to this day, with cross channel ferry ports at Southampton and Portsmouth offering regular sailings to France and mainland Europe. When it's time to venture further, Southampton International Airport is only five minutes away.

There's also a great variety of sports facilities and pursuits to suit all ages on our doorstep. Stoneham Golf Club borders The Old Mansion Collective and is one of the most respected golf clubs in the county. Just outside the development, you'll find an exciting new state-of-the-art sports hub with awesome 3G football pitches and mini pitches. You'll also be able to enjoy archery, cricket, hockey, lawn bowls, football and rugby that are all easily reached on foot, thanks largely to the fantastic new facilities at the Trojans Club that Highwood has supported.

The perfect home, the perfect location... The Old Mansion Collective really does have everything you need.

The distances above are approximate and by road.
